

GARDEN MUSEUM

LITERARY FESTIVAL 2019 - SCHEDULE FRIDAY 21 JUNE

Please note:

- Talk times are subject to change. We will issue all guests with a programme containing the latest timings, locations and key information upon your arrival at the Festival.
- Lunch will be served and picnics can be collected between 12:30 - 14:30.
- Garden and House Tours will run throughout the Festival - timings TBC.
- More details on pop-up workshops and performances to follow.

09:15 Houghton Hall & Gardens gate open

10:00 Welcome tea and coffee

11:00 - 11:45

Arne Maynard - Gardens to be Gardened

11:00 - 11:45

Tom Williamson - Researching and restoring the Houghton landscape: achievements, challenges and wider issues

12:00 - 13:00

Tim Richardson - Sculpture in the Garden: from Renaissance palace to modern sculpture park

George Carter - Objects in the Garden

12:15 - 13:15

Non Morris & Lady Rose Cecil - Mollie: Portrait of a Gardener - Memories of the 6th Marchioness of Salisbury

14:30 - 15:15

Julian and Isabel Bannerman on their gardens

14:30 - 15:15

Lisa Chaney - The Biographer Who Gardens

15:30 - 16:30

The Marquess of Cholmondeley in Conversation with Tim Marlow

15:30 - 16:15

Mary Keen - Objects, Incidents, Accidents

16:45 - 17:30

Peter Parker - Latin in the Garden

19:00: Houghton Hall & Gardens close

GARDEN MUSEUM

SATURDAY 22 JUNE

09:30 Houghton Hall & Gardens gates open

10:00 Welcome tea and coffee

11:00 – 11:45

Sir Roy Strong – Heroes and Heroines

11:00 – 12:00

Caroline Donald, Jo Thompson, Sam McKnight – From Divas to Dahlias

12:15 – 13:00

Luciano Giubbilei – Sculptures and Inspiration from Art

12:30 – 13:15

Carol Woolton – Floral Fashions in Jewels from the Nineteenth century to Today

14:30 – 15:00

Raffaella Barker – On How Growing a Garden Grows a Novel

14:30 – 15:30

Victoria Fritz – Making Peace: Restoring Chamberlain's Garden

Christopher Woodward – Virginia Woolf & Gardens

14:30 – 15:30

Catherine Horwood – Beth Chatto: A Life with Plants

Hugh St Clair – Artists Cedric Morris and Arthur Lett Haines in the Garden and the Kitchen at Benton End

15:45 – 16:30

Robin Lane Fox

16:45 – 17:30

Richard Mabey in Conversation with Christopher Woodward: A Look Back Over A Lifetime's Writing About Nature

16:45 – 17:30

Shane Connolly – Rediscovering the Meaning of Flowers

18:30 Houghton Hall & Gardens close