

Programme

European Conference on the Archaeology of Historic Gardens
- Krzyżtopór 2023.

Ujazd 6 - 8 September 2023_

05.09.2023 – Registration 4 – 8 pm

06.09.2023 First Day - Opening of the Conference: Using Garden Archaeology in Europe

09:00 Official Welcome

09:15 Inaugural lecture: Brian Dix (UK): Archaeology, accuracy and authenticity in historic gardens reconstruction: Hampton Court, England, as an example of comprehensive implementation from research to reconstruction.

Session 1:

Garden archaeology

Royal Gardens

1. Annick Heitzman (France): Garden Archaeology at Versailles.
2. Andrzej Golembnik (Poland): Archaeology in the gardens of King Jan III Sobieski in Wilanów - achievements and prospects.
3. Emilia Jastrzębska (Poland): Archaeological research at the Royal Łazienki Park.

11:45 -12:00 Coffee

4. Geert Vynckier (Belgium): Excavation in the courtyard garden of the castle at Gaasbeek. How the results contribute to renovation and restoration.
5. Michal Vágner, Miroslav Dejmal and Jakub Šimík (Czech Republik): Multidisciplinary archaeological research and monument restoration of the Pernštejn Castle ornamental gardens.
6. Anna Andreasson Sjögren (Sweden): Medieval gardens: new knowledge from the archaeological record.

13:30 – 14:15 Lunch

7. Maria João de Sousa (Portugal) : Archaeology in the reconstruction of a Romantic Garden: The National Palace of Queluz.

8. Carlos Caballero (Spain): Archaeological interventions in the Jardín del Príncipe at Aranjuez.

9. Cécile Travers (France): Apport de l'archéologie à la connaissance d'un parc anglo-chinois de la fin du XVIIIe siècle (Domaine de Méréville, 91) Ou comment une vaste zone humide a été transformée en un parc à la mode de 58ha.

15:30 – 15:45 Coffee

10. Volodymir Herych (Ukraine): Archaeological excavations at the Żowkwa residence.

11. Aja Guldåker: (Sweden, Norway): From the mind of the priest Jacob Nicolai Wilse to a copper engraving depicting Norway's oldest documented garden. Various aspects of the investigation of Norwegian historic gardens.

12. Alexandru Mexi and Michaela Ciornei (Romania): Garden Archaeology as a tool for the research and preservation of historic gardens around Bucharest.

13. Karin Lindeblad, Ann-Mari Hållans Stenholm and Annika Nordström (Sweden): Swedish Garden Archaeology with research history, methods and analysis. Some case studies from Stockholm and Uppsala (Carl von Linnés botanical garden).

17:30 Discussion

18:30 Dinner

21:30 Knight's enactment and torchlight tour of Krzyżtopór Castle

7.09.2023 Second Day: Management and research aspects. Advanced investigative and presentation techniques

09:00 Inaugural lecture: Paweł Jaskanis (Muzeum Pałacu Króla Jana III, Wilanów Poland): Aspects of managing historic gardens - the example of the Royal Gardens of the Wilanów residence.

Session 2 :

Garden archaeology and its interdisciplinary aspects.

14. Prof. Lionella Scazzosi, Raffaella Laviscio, Carlo Schiesaro (Politecnico di Milano, ABC department, Italy): Italian approach to historic gardens and archaeology: the idea of palimpsest and case-studies. 15. John Watkins (UK): Archaeology as a critical tool for guiding and managing the restoration of garden monuments.

16. Heike Tanzer (Germany): A gem of garden art in Saxony-Anhalt - the Orangery Garden in Castle Park Harbke through the ages.

17. Renata Stachańczyk (Poland): Maintaining control over the layout of historic parks and gardens - the example of Mużakowski Park.

11:00: Discussion

11: 30: Coffee

Session 3:

Advanced research techniques

18. Prof. Giorgio Vassena, Prof. Francesco Fassi, Prof. Luigi Fregonese, Dott. Luca Perfetti and Prof. Achille Cristiana (Italy): Accurate survey of historic gardens using integrated mobile mapping techniques.

19. Piotr Matyjasek (Poland): Measurement inventory from the air as the basis for a spatial database.

20. Miron Bogacki (Poland): In-depth analysis of aerial photography.

21. Tomasz Herbich (Poland) and Neil Linford (UK): Geophysical methods in historic gardens.

16: 00 Lunch

Demonstrations

16:30 – 17:30 TPI (Poland)

17:30 – 18:30 Gexcel (Italy)

19:00 – 22:00 Outdoors party

8.09.2023. Third Day: Krzyżtopór Castle Gardens

Session 4:

Historical background and current state of research

22. Still waiting for professor's decision- Sarmatian culture and its main trends

23. Roman Marcinek (Poland) - Archival research as the foundation of field investigation.

24. Prof. Andrzej Koss, Andrzej Gołembnik and Piotr Zambrzycki (Poland): Results of archaeological research conducted at Krzyżtopór Castle in 2009-2010. Research and conservation aspects.

10:30 Coffee

The future of the gardens at Krzyżtopór Castle

25. Prof. Zbigniew Myczkowski (Poland): Recompositions of historic gardens grown on the roots of archaeology - a case study.

26. Tomasz Kuls (Poland): The importance of formal and spatial analysis in the reconstruction of historical gardens of Krzyżtopór Castle.

27. Jerzy Wowczak (Poland): Interpretation of research results and the limit of creation in the reconstruction of historic gardens.

12:00 Discussion: Future of the castle garden at Krzyżtopór - a discussion summarizing the conference, led by Lionella Scazzosi, Renata Stachańczyk, Andrzej Koss, Zbigniew Myczkowski, Brian Dix, Geert Vynckier, Paweł Jaskanis, Neil Linford and Andrzej Gołembnik

13:00 Lunch

13:30 Closing Ceremony

14:30 Departure from Ujazd.

© INCEDO3D Andrzej Gołembnik